

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, January 13, 1931

Died: Friday, February 1, 2019

Frances Ann McGreevy, known to her friends as “Fran,” passed away Friday, February 1, 2019 at the age of 88 years. A stroke survivor since 2007, she was a resident of Griggsville Estates at the time of her passing. She loved playing games and solving puzzles, especially Cards, Sudoku, Yatzee, Jigsaws, and Bingo. She enjoyed music and was also an avid reader and learner, taking many courses throughout her life whether in person or by correspondence.

Born January 13, 1931 in Quincy, IL, Fran was the third child of Daniel Riley McGreevy and Margaret Helen (Carnes) McGreevy. She and her sisters spent most of their summers and holidays with her second family, their aunt Mary Dale (Carnes) Venable (Ed) and their children; Judy, Jay and Jack. As time went by, the three sisters spent most of their holidays with their second family and their spouses and children.
